Rules for the Award of Fisheries Scholarships

1. These rules may be called the Fisheries (Award of Scholarship) Rules, 1974.

2. These rules shall apply to the students belonging to Fishermen community, (Children or dependents of bona fide fishermen who earn their living by fishing) studying for higher postmatriculate edncation to colleges and Technical and Technological Institntes.

3. The grant of financial assistance will be granted at the rates given in Appendix VI for each conrse of study.

4. Application for grant of financial assistance to fishermen students shall be invited by the Director of Fisheries not later than 31st Augnst of every year. The application shall be submitted to the Director of Fisheries through the Head of the Institutions concerned in Form I nnder Appendix I which can be had on request from the offices of Assistant Director of Fisheries/Deputy Director of Fisheries concerned so as to reach him on or before the date to be specified for the purpose by the Director of Fisheries every year.

5. The Director of Fisheries after making necessary enquiries if found necessary, shall sanction the scholarship to the varions students specifying the amount of the scholarship. A copy of such sanction order shall be communicated to the Accountant General, Kerala.

6. The bill for the scholarship amount shall be countersigned by the Deputy Director of Fisheries on contingent bills presented by the Head of the Institution and endorsed to the Head of the Institution concerned for encashment and disbursement to the students concerned.

7. The scholarship shall be given only to students who are not financially able to meet the expenditure on account of the course of study. Certificate in Forms 2&3 under Appendix I from a Revenue Officer, not below the rank of a Tahsildar, testifying community, the income of his/her parents or guardian and that the student requires financial help to continue studies, shall be produced. No scholarship will be given in case the annual gross income of the parent/guardian of a student exceeds Rs. 3,000.

8. Holders of a scholarship under these rules shall not hold any other scholarship except a Merit Scholarship from the University or Board or a grant for purchase of text. books from any source. Scholarships granted by the Fisheries Department is without deduction under fee concession and hostel accommodation. Deduction will however be made if any monetary aid is received from any Department of the Government towards cost of text books or pocket money for incidental expenses. If the student is the recipient of any other scholarship (either based on merit or otherwise) or fee concession or other financial assistance from any source either from Government of India or from any Department of the State Government like Harijan Welfare, etc. and if the rules governing the grant of such scholarships/concessions or financial assistance stipulate that the recipient of such scholarship/concession/financial assistance, shall not enjoy any other scholarship/concession/financial assistance, the students shall have the option to choose one of the scholarships/concessions/financial assistance which is more beneficial to him/her and then he/she will be eligible to enjoy only that scholarship/concession/assistance which he/she has so chosen. If the student has already received a portion of the amount granted under any of the above sources of assistance which he has not chosen, such amount shall be refunded. However the receipt of full fee concessions due from the Harijan Welfare Department will not be a bar for the enjoyment of the fisheries scholarship concurrently provided the student is otherwise eligible for the benefit.

9. The scholarship shall ordinarily be tenable for a period not exceeding one academic year consisting of 10 months in a year (excluding vacation) but it may be renewed at the discretion of the Director of Fisheries, subject to funds being available, for a period not exceeding one academic year consisting of 10 months at a time to enable the holder to complete the approved course of study. The Head of the Institution shall furnish a renewal certificate to the Director of Fisheries in Form 4 given under Appendix IV in favour of students who are eligible for renewal under Rule 10.

Note:—(i) Scholarship shall be drawn for the entire period from date of admission of the student till the end of academic year subject to a maximum of 10 months.

(ii) In the case of students studying in professional colleges they will be allowed to claim scholarship for the period of annual examination also if they happen to be held in April/May subject to the condition that the total period for which the scholarship is claimed in an academic year does not exceed 10 months.

(iii) In the case of pupil teachers who have to attend vacation camp, scholarship may be claimed during the period of camp on condition that the total period during which the candidate gets scholarship in an academic year does not exceed 10 months.

(iv) If the holder of scholarship has to attend practical classes even after vacation, scholarship can be claimed fixing the period of attendance in classes as 10 months taking into account the practicals also.

(v) All vacations, holidays and absence not exceeding one month should be treated as period eligible for claiming scholarships.

(vi) Scholarships can be claimed for the whole month even if the examinations and on the 1st or 2nd of a month provided that the total period for which the scholarship is claimed in an academic year does not exceed 10 months.

10. If the holder of scholarship fails to pass the annual examination for the course of study for which a scholarship is awarded in a year, the concession will automatically cease and the concession will not ordinarily be renewed. The student may however, apply for a fresh scholarship again, after passing the annual examination in a subsequent year. If the student was unable to appear for the annual examination on health grounds application for renewal of scholarship will be considered on its merit, provided the Head of the Institution certifies that on the basis of performance, the candidate was likely to have passed if he/she had appeared for the examination and provided further that the application is supported by a proper medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

11. A scholarship may be cancelled if the student changes the subject of the course of study for which the scholarship was originally granted or changes the Institute of study without the prior approval of the Director of Fisheries. The Head of the Institution shall report such cases to the Director of Fisheries and stop payment of the amount of scholarship. The amount already paid may also be recovered at the direction of the Director of Fisheries

12. The award of the scholarship, is depend on the satisfactory progress and conduct of the scholarship holder. It it is reported by the Head of the Institution at any time that a scholarship holder has by reason of his/her own act or default failed to make satisfactory progress or has been guilty of misconduct such as resorting to or participating in strikes, of malpractice in the examination hall, irregularity in attendance without the permission of the authorities concerned etc., the Director of Fisheries may either cancel the scholarship or withhold further payment for such period as he deems fit.

13. The Director of Fisheries will also be at full liberty to stop the scholarship at any time or to reduce the amount of scholarship for valid reasons without notice and his decision in the matter shall be final.

14. These rules are liable to be changed at any time by the Government.
